

SCHEME IS REJECTED

As It is Considered Too Risky a Proposition for Uncle Sam.

The Second Day of Congress

Occupied With the Reading of the President's Annual Message and the Introduction of a Few Bills, Including an Anti-Trust Measure.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—At the cabinet meeting today the proposition of Isaac N. Seligman, the New York banker, for financing Venezuela's obligations to Great Britain and Germany, was the chief topic discussed. It was the unanimous opinion that although this government would like to see the matter settled, the United States cannot enter into any arrangement that could possibly be construed as a guarantee for the payment of the bonds which Mr. Seligman proposes to get from Venezuela as security for the payment of claims in question.

INVESTIGATION

Of a Virginian's Right to a Seat in Congress.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The House committee met this morning to consider the resolution offered by their chairman, Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, looking to an investigation of the title of Mr. Glass, of Virginia, to his seat, doubt having been raised because of the disfranchisement of colored voters under the new constitution. It was unanimously decided to drop the case for the session.

TARIFF CUT DOWN

Between United States and the Philippines to 25 Per Cent.

Washington, Dec. 2.—In accordance with the request of the Taft commission and the secretary of war, Senator Dodge today introduced a bill to make the tariff between the Philippines and the United States, 25 per cent of the Dingley rate, instead of 75 per cent as at present. He expects to secure a passage of this bill without much discussion.

FIFTY THOUSAND

Ordered Appropriated for Hard Coal Strike Commission's Expense

Washington, Dec. 2.—The house committee on appropriations today ordered a favorable report on the Cannon bill, appropriating $50,000 to defray the expenses of the anthracite coal strike commission.

At 1 40 o'clock this afternoon, the house adjourned.

POLITICIAN VS. BANKER.

Your Uncle Marcus is Now Coquetting With Both of Them.

Wants to Trim Tom Johnson by Using Banker Herrick, But Cannot Easily Let Go of General Dick, His Man Friday.

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—(Special)—A few days ago the intimation was given out that gubernatorial honors had in the direction of Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland. It was said of him that he was to be allowed to win his spurs by accepting the mayoralty nomination from the Republicans in Cleveland, and then signaling the event by wresting that city from the control of Tom Johnson. Fresh from a triumph of this nature, he was to be led out into the gubernatorial field and with the tacit understanding that Senator Hanna was behind him, the supposition was that the rank and file of the party would speedily fall into line and get on board the band wagon.

But this week the talk is of a different nature. In political circles here at the capital town almost every Republican of note throughout the state seems willing to admit that General Herrick could have the nomination if he wants it, because they say he is clearly entitled to it. So far, while public opinion has indicated very strongly that the Akron man had things his own way, yet he has absolutely refused to say anything either way. This silence has been an enigma to his friends and to the party in general. The Republican party is fairly alive with young, active and ambitious men anxious to try their conclusions on the governorship. There is Senator Harding, one of the new leaders of the party; Albert Douglas, of Chillicothe; Congressman Bob Nevins, of Dayton; and Harry Daugherty, of Washington. C. H. and Columbus, all of whom are just pining to start in the race. Not one of the gentlemen named, however, with the possible exception of Mr. Daugherty, will take any action until General Dick takes the public into his confidence and tells them what he is going to do relative to this all-important subject. This General Dick is reported as being about ready to do some thing since the intimation was given out that about the first of the year he would make a statement to the public of his attitude toward the governorship. In this statement, he will either announce a willingness to remain in the hands of his friends or take himself out of the race entirely. If he follows the latter there will be such a scramble for the nomination as the party has not witnessed in many years.

EXCISE TAX

Paid Into the State Treasury Under Protest.

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—(Special)—The Lake Shore Electric railroad paid $5,000 excise taxes into the autor of state's office under protest. The company is in the hands of a receiver, and for that reason did not think it should be required to pay taxes, but when informed by Auditor Guilbert that the 50 per cent penalty would be enforced, the officers concluded to make the payment under protest. The road is owned by the Everett-McCord syndicate.

FRANCIS JOSEPH

Has Been Emperor of Austria for Fifty-seven Years.

Vienna, Dec. 2.—Throughout the dual monarchy today there were celebrations to mark the fifty-fourth anniversary of the accession of Emperor Francis Joseph to the throne. In the capital business was generally suspended, and in all the churches thanksgiving services were held.

$100,000 VERDICT.

New York, Dec. 2.—A verdict in six figures was recorded in Justice Dugro's court this morning when the jury in the case of Mrs. Jennie Leys, against the New York Central railroad, found for the sum of $100,000 with interest from January 8, last, if allowed. Suit was brought by Mrs. Leys for the death of her husband in the tunnel accident last winter. Her husband was manager of Altman's big store and it was shown that his income at the time of his death was $70,000 a year.

TWENTY ROUNDS

Will be Fought by Eddie Hanlon and Maxey Haugh.

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 2.—Considerable interest is manifested in the 20 round go between Eddie Hanlon and Maxey Haugh, which is scheduled for decision tonight under the auspices of the Acme Athletic club. The two fighters are very evenly matched and a lively bout is expected to be the outcome.

MR. KNOX REPORTS.

MR. KNOX—Washington, Dec. 2.—Attorney General Knox submitted to congress today his annual report. It shows that during the last year his department disposed of 375 cases in supreme court and that there are 344 cases now pending there. Mr. Knox strongly recommends that an increase be made in salaries paid the judicial officers of the government.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Is to Have a New Constitution Convention Opens.

Concord, N. H., Dec. 2.—The convention which is to frame a new constitution for the state of New Hampshire convened today with William E. Chandler, ex-governor of the United States, in the chair. The proceedings of the convention promise to attract more than ordinary attention owing to the sentiment among the delegates in favor of adopting stringent measures looking to the regulation of trusts within the bounds of New Hampshire. Mr. Chandler has issued a statement to the members of the convention in which he suggests an amendment giving the legislature power to supervise fictitious capitalization and to secure publicity in their operations.

GROWTH TOO RANK.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The government crop report says winter wheat was in a very promising condition at the close of the month. With ample moisture and exceptionally mild temperatures, throughout the month, the crop made rapid advancement, and a too rank growth is very generally reported from the central valleys, Oklahoma and Texas. In early sown the harvest has appeared extensively, but this past has not affected the late sown.

CEREMONIES

Attend Installation of Dr.

William C. Duland.

Milton, Wis., Dec. 1.—The installation of the Rev. Dr. William C. Duland today as president of Milton college was marked by interesting ceremonies. The faculty, alumni and students turned out in full force and listened to addresses by President Harper of the University of Chicago, President Plantz of Lawrence university and other distinguished educators.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—Today was the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt, but only a very few of the many callers at the White House recalled the fact and offered their congratulations. In the president's family there was no special observance of the anniversary, unless a dinner at which several close friends will be present this evening may be regarded as such.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 2.—A son was born to the wife of W. A. Clark, Jr., last evening, winning the million dollar gift which Senator W. A. Clark offered to his sons and daughters a year ago for the first grand son presented to him. His youngest daughter Mrs. Morris in New York recently gave birth to a daughter. Senator Clark, who is in Paris, has been notified by cable of the arrival of the prize winner.

Lancaster, O., Dec. 2.—Another octogenarian has laid claim to the distinction of being the oldest Mason in Ohio. The new claimant is the venerable Dr. John H. Rhodes, of Lancaster, one of the best known and most highly respected pioneers of the Fairfield county capital.

Dr. Rhodes is in his 80th year, but in spite of the burden of years he is hale and hearty and as spry as a man of half his years. His hair and flowing beard have long since turned to snowy whiteness but his laugh rings with the same youthful tones it did years and years ago, and his good nature has only been mellowed with the passing years.

For 49 years Dr. Rhodes has been numbered among the Knights Templar of his home city and during a greater period he has been an enthusiastic member of the Masonic bodies of Lancaster. Last week he went to Columbus for the purpose of being initiated into the Shrine at the ceremonies of Aladdin Temple. He walked the burning sands with as an elastic step as his younger co-initiates.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 2.—Barry Johnstone, who, in a fit of jealousy, shot and killed Mrs. Everett Beckwith, the actress, last night, refuses to talk saying only, "She was false to me and I killed her." He is now in the hospital dying from self-inflicted wounds. Johnstone's murder and attempted suicide were deliberate. Before shooting, he left a letter bequeathing all to his brother and mother. He was discharged from Richard Mansfield's Co. in Cleveland last week for assaulting a stage hand. Mrs. Beckwith was separated from her husband and was the leading lady in Keith's Stock Co.

Fort Worth, Texas, Dec. 2.—Fort Worth has opened wide its gates to the scores of fair delegates who have arrived for the annual state convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The convention will be in session during the next three days and judging from present indications it will be the most successful in the history of the state society. Austin, Galveston, Houston, Corsicana, Waco, Terrell and other cities of the state have sent large numbers of delegates who are being handsomely entertained by the local members of the society and by the people of Fort Worth generally.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Closing Dec. wheat 72 5-8; corn 55 1/2; oats 31 1/4; pork 15.82.

CHARGES OF FRAUD

Against the Late Collis P. Huntington and His Colleagues, Came Up for Argument Today in New York.

New York, Dec. 1.—In the Surrogate's court a motion to compel the executors of the estate of C. P. Huntington to file an inventory came up for argument today. Walter Morehead of London and New York brings the action on behalf of himself and other stockholders of the Central Pacific railroad. Mr. Morehead has for some years been active in presenting his claims against those who managed the deal by which the Southern Pacific absorbed the Central Pacific. It is his claim that Collis P. Huntington, Leland Stanford, Charles Crocker and Mark Hopkins fraudulently obtained $100,000,000 belonging to the stockholders. He asserts that as directors of the Central Pacific they turned over to construction companies controlled by them $163,000,000, including $30,000,000 of government bonds loaned for building the road. Of this sum he states that but $60,000,000 was expended in construction and equipment, and that the other money was pocketed by the "big four." The defendants in the suit are Charles H. Tweed, Isaac E. Gates, and Arabella Huntington, and the Central Pacific railroad. The inventory is asked that the prosecution may bring action against the others if the estate is not sufficient to satisfy the claim.

ANTI TRUST BILL INTRODUCED TODAY.

Its Passage Would Render Monopolies Much Less Harmful.

WASHINGTON, DEC. 2.—THE BILL WAS INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE TODAY BY SENATOR CULLOM. IT PROPOSES TO ADD NINE NEW SECTIONS TO THE SHERMAN LAW. IT PROPOSES THAT NO ARTICLE OF COMMERCE PRODUCED BY ANY TRUST OR OTHER CONCERN FOR THE PURPOSE OF MONOPOLIZING THE MANUFACTURE OF THAT ARTICLE, SHALL BE TRANSPORTED

OUT OF THE STATE OR TERRITORY IN WHICH IT IS MANUFACTURED. IT ALSO PROVIDES FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF ANY RAILWAY CARRYING SUCH GOODS OUT OF THE STATE AND REQUIRES ALL CORPORATIONS DOING INTER-STATE BUSINESS WITH A CAPITAL EXCEEDING $100,000 TO MAKE A FULL RETURN OF THE DETAILS OF SUCH BUSINESS TO THE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION WHEN EVER REQUESTED.

WHITE RIBBONERS FLOCK TO COLUMBUS.

Much Enthusiasm Aroused by the Cry "The Saloons Must Go."

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—(Special)—The opening gun of the great anti-saloon congress was made at the Board of Trade auditorium in this city last night. Delegates from every nook of the state, representing churches, Christian organizations and temperance societies, are arriving on every train. The attendance is very large. In glowing letters, a banner is stretched across the stage reading "The Saloon Must Go." and judging from the attendance at this congress, and the enthusiasm manifested, those in attendance propose to make the words of that banner come true. Fully 1500 delegates are now here. It is the most important Anti-Saloon gathering ever held in Ohio.

The attendance this morning at the opening of his second day's session exceeded by several scores the number of delegates present at the formal opening of the gathering last evening. After the customary devotion at service the delegates listened to a long program of interesting addresses dealing with every phase of the liquor problem and the methods for its solution. Some of these papers were as follows: "The Work Accomplished and the Work Awaiting Us," superintendent P. A. Baker, "The College Man and Reforms," president Emory W. Hunt of Denison university, "How to Organize the Force," Robert Scott, of Cambridge, O.; "How We Didn't Win at Ironton," Rev. Homer W. Smith D. D. of Ironton. Legislative work in the interest of the temperance movement formed the chief theme of discussion at the afternoon session. The convention will conclude its work tomorrow.

SANITARY MATTERS UP FOR DISCUSSION.

Representatives of American Republics Meet in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—The sanitary conference of the American republics, for which an executive committee aided by the bureau of American Republics has been preparing for nearly a year past, was formally opened in this city today. Those in attendance include delegates from the United States, San Salvador, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras and other countries of the western hemisphere. The sessions will continue several weeks. Questions of the public health will be considered from an international standpoint, the object being to secure concerted action by the various governments in preventing the spread of epidemics, such as smallpox and yellow fever. The representatives of the United States in the conference are members of the various national state and municipal health organizations, and all of them men who are scientific as well as practical workers in the fields of quarantine and sanitation. It is hoped the conference will result in an agreement for co-operation between the health officials of the various countries for a uniform system of quarantine, and for the eventual abolition of all quarantine between countries which join in the sanitary union.

Small Profit.
Local friends of Allen Simmons, marshal of Alger, are afforded much amusement by an occurrence in which he was a prominent actor. He and a minister at Alger, and also well known in south Lima, formed a partnership for raising onions. Recently they harvested their crop, consisting of 70 bushels. They started to bring them to Lima. Half way here, a rain came on and the onions were soaked. In that condition they were unmarketable and the marshal and preacher drove

STARTLED

By some sudden sound she drops the vase upon the floor. She is nervous and may be told that nervousness is a luxury which only a rich woman can afford to indulge in. Nervousness has cost many a woman her position. Some times when women run machinery the price of nervousness is mutilation—a finger lost or perhaps the whole hand crushed.

Nervousness in women is commonly but a symptom of womanly disease. It is useless in such cases to "doctor" for the nerves alone. Cure the disease which attacks the delicate womanly organism and nervousness will be cured also.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep.

"In the fall of 1897, I was troubled with nervousness, headache, heart trouble and female weakness," writes Miss Blanch M. Bracy, of Georgetown, N. Y. "Last summer I wrote you and you advised me to try your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did and I began to improve rapidly. Continued taking the medicine, half a dozen each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' for the space of five months, and in less than a year had regained my former health."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the muddy complexion.

on to Delphos. The onions instead of drying out began sprouting. The partners resolved to proceed to Van Wert as they went along the road the minister drove and the marshal sat back on the onions sprouting them and swearing at the ill luck. At Van Wert they sold the onions for thirty-seven dollars but as their expenses were nineteen dollars, their onion farming did not net them much.

Missionary Rally.
Rev. George H. Sims, pastor of the south Lima Church of Christ, is completing arrangements for the great missionary rally which will be held at his church early in January. Mr. Sims has communicated with workers in this department in various parts of the state and the indications are the attendance of delegates will be large and a magnificent meeting held. Seventy-five towns will be represented.

Three Men Killed.
Henry Dabler, of St. Johns avenue, learned yesterday of the tragic death of Albert Armentrout, at McGuffey, Saturday. Decayed, who was a relative of Mr. Dabler, was employed at the saw mill of C. A. Guider in McGuffey. Saturday afternoon, the boiler of the engine, employed in the operation of the mill exploded, dealing death and destruction to three men, and completely demolishing the mill.

C. A. Guider, the proprietor, was hurled a great distance from the scene of the terrible catastrophe, by the forcible concussion and was badly hurt, death resulting from his injuries. Oscar Decker, an employee at the mill, was nearly decapitated, presumably by a piece of flying steel, torn from the boiler. Albert Armentrout's body was found beneath a quantity of rough lumber. The unfortunate man's head was torn from the body and was found quite a distance away. The nearest residence to the scene of the deplorable disaster is that of C. A. Guider, the owner of the mill. When the explosion occurred, Mrs. Guider ran to the place of the calamitous affair, and was the first to discover her husband, and the other two men, all of whom were dead when she arrived. Mr. Dabler will go to McGuffey to attend the funeral of Armentrout.

Waiters Who Get Heat Tips.

Waiters who receive the most tips, says the Chicago Inter Ocean, are usually those who have everlasting and Job-like patience, those who do not easily take an insult, who ever have a pleasant smile for their patrons, who try earnestly to please them and are always ready to accommodate every one. A waiter should never place himself in a position of expectancy in the matter of receiving a tip and should avoid approaching a guest if he sees him in the act of drawing change from his pocket. A waiter should never pose as an object of pity with a view to securing a tip. If he deserves a tip, he should let the guest feel within himself that he deserves it, and if the guest wishes to give him a tip he will usually manage to catch the waiter's attention or leave the tip beside the plate. Should the waiter receive a tip previous to waiting on the guest, he should leave it lying on the table and then do his level best to earn it.

A Witty Reply.

Whenever the United States supreme court, on hearing the argument of counsel for plaintiff in error, is entirely satisfied that he has no case, the chief justice is apt to say to counsel for defendant in error that the court does not care to hear further argument. At one time Hon. Matthew Carpenter from Wisconsin was counsel for plaintiff in error and opened the case. Before he was through the court was satisfied that there was nothing in it, and so when he had concluded and counsel for defendant in error arose Chief Justice Waite said, "The court does not care to hear any further argument."

Counsel was a little deaf and, although noticing that the chief justice spoke, did not hear what he had said and, turning to Mr. Carpenter, who sat beside him, asked what had been said.

"Oh, hang it!" replied Carpenter in tones audible to the bench. "The chief justice said he would rather give you the case than hear you talk."—Youth's Companion.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

There are numerous reliable statements of grizzly bears having attacked men, but nowadays the grizzly does not seek out his human victims, as there are credible statements that his forefathers used to do. Neither does he lie in wait and pounce upon a hunter, tear him into bloody shreds to delight his bloodthirstiness, as the old time stories used to tell. The change in the grizzly's disposition is illustrated by a veteran hunter to the change in the character of the white couch of the grizzly, the polar bear of the arctic. When the stations for the Hudson Bay company were established, the diners of the men there often referred to the fright of attacks by polar bears. Many a navigator in the arctic seas has been clamped and chewed to death by polar bears. But for nearly a century the polar bear has not been regarded as so very fierce, and nowadays it is looked upon as a cowardly beast. Association with armed men has modified the polar bear's disposition.—Outing.

PAYING POLITICAL DEBTS.

Paying political obligations at the expense of the public service is not a new proposition in any time, but it seems a bit more flagrant for such an individual on the part of the governor of the great state of Ohio, than when such politics is played by a more obscure person. The governor's latest performance in this line is censured in the following terms by the Columbus Capital.

"The unconstitutional appointment of two members of the legislature on the Ohio board of commissioners to the St. Louis exposition will not be conducive to the early usefulness of that body. It will organize, if not prevented from doing so by the courts, with a cloud on the title of their two members, and the question will at once be raised as to whether their participation in the deliberations of the board will not invalidate the acts attempted to be performed by the board as such. Ultimately, if permitted to continue, this state of affairs may give rise to very embarrassing conditions at the exposition and humiliate the State of Ohio.

Had, however, as these appointments will be in operation, they are worse in origin. The act of these two members' appointment placed the constitution of Ohio in contempt. The question of the constitutionality of the appointment of members of the legislature on this board was raised in ample time to relieve the governor of any promises he had made that could not be kept while observing the law. The only answer that came from the executive office to these representations, however, was that "practical politics" was paramount to every other consideration and that the legislators appointed had peculiar claims in the premises, created at the extra session. When a principle of this kind is applied to affairs of state the evil effect upon public interests is far greater than can result from the immediate consequences of an unconstitutional act. The logical result of the general application of the same principle would be the complete overthrow of the fundamental law. Viewed in this light the present composition of the board of commissioners is intolerable and its unconstitutional quantity must be withdrawn unless we are to openly profess that the constitution is null and void."

THE BEST DAY OF ALL.

Two Reasons Why Sunday Always Appeals to the Children.

On weekday mornings father had gone to work when you came downstairs, but on Sunday mornings when you awoke a trifle earlier, if anything—

"Father?"
Silence.
"Father?" a little louder.
Then a sleepy "Yes."
"We want to get up."
"It isn't time yet. You children go to sleep."

You waited. Then—
"Father, is it time yet?"
"No. You child, on the still!"
So you and Lizbeth, wide awake, whispered together, and then, to while away the time while father slept, you played Indian, which required two little yells from you to begin with (when the Indian you arrived in your war paint) and two big yells from Lizbeth to end with (when the Paleface she was being scalped).

Then father said it was "no use," and mother took a hand. You were quiet after that, but it was yawning lying there with the sun so high. You listened. Not a sound came from father and mother's room. You rose cautiously, you and Lizbeth, in your little bare feet. You stole softly across the door. The door was a crack open, so you peeked in, your face even with the knob and Lizbeth's just below. And then at one and the same instant you both said "Boo!" and grinned, and the harder you grinned the harder father tried not to laugh, which was a sign that you could scramble into bed with him, you on one side and Lizbeth on the other, cuddling down close while mother went to see about breakfast.

It was very strange, but while it had been so hard to drowse in your own bed the moment you were in father's you did not want to get up at all. Indeed, it was father who wanted to get up first, and it was you who cried that it was not time.

Weekdays were always best for most things, but for two reasons Sunday was the best day of all. One reason was Sunday dinner. The other was father.—Harper's Magazine.

JAPANESE REGALIA.

Royal Emblems Without Which the Emperor Could Not Rule.

The Japanese royal emblems consist of a copper mirror, symbolic of knowledge; a steel sword, symbolizing courage, and agate jewels, representing mercy. The story of their origin was told thus by a Japanese official:

The sun goddess became angry with the earth and withdrew into a cave, plunging everything into darkness. The other deities could not induce her to come out, so began to make a noise as of great rejoicing, which aroused the curiosity of the irate goddess. She finally came to the mouth of the cave to learn the cause of the uproar and was told that they had found a more beautiful goddess than herself. The sun goddess came out then, demanding to see her rival, and the crafty deities held the mirror before her, which drove all her splendor away.

The sword was taken by Susanoo, the brother of the sun goddess, from the tail of an eight headed serpent that had been annually devouring a beautiful girl. Susanoo placed eight great tubs of wine in his way and when he was sleeping killed him and took the sword as a trophy.

The sword is kept in an apartment near the imperial bedchamber and called the Room of the Sword. The jewels have also a room to themselves, and the mirror is in charge of a priestess. The regalia have the highest significance in the eyes of the people, and it is held that no emperor can possibly rule without the three virtues which they represent. He must, moreover, hold the actual tokens, and in the imperial code it is enjoined that on the death of the sovereign his heir must take possession of them.

The "Basin" of an Apple.

One end of the apple bears the name of "basin" and contains the remnants of the blossom—sometimes called the eye of the fruit. This part of the apple is deep in some varieties and shallow and open in others. This is the weakest point in the whole apple as concerns the question of the keeping quality of the fruit, if the basin is shallow and the canal to the core fairly closed, there is much less likelihood of the fruit decaying than when it is deep, and the evident opening connects the center of the fruit with the surface.

As It Really Was.

"Lay on, Macduff!" cried Macbeth. Macduff was motionless.
"What'll be the matter now?" said Macbeth.
Macbeth: "Dinna ye know that's cue?"
"I was no sure," said Macduff.
"Whether ye were just reek in yer grammar, I thought ye meant the cue an' that I wudna stand, but it's all right now."

Charles E. Bowman Had the Cup of Marriage.

Sheriff Barr has but three prisoners in the county jail at the present time, and one of them has been convicted and awaits sentence. The trio are Red Donahue, awaiting trial for the Cairo wool theft; Dan Callahan, convicted yesterday of pocket picking; and Harry Gardner, brought in from Harrod for wife beating. But for Gardner, there would have been a chance of cleaning out the jail for a day or two at least, as Callahan will be taken away within the next few days and Donahue's case is the next to be disposed of. A short time ago, the sheriff had 22 boarders to take care of but the criminal term of court has disposed of them all.

A Wife Beater.

Justice of the Peace Leatherman, of Harrod sent a wife beater to Lima this morning, who will spend ten days in the county jail. Harry G. Gardner is the man who will pay the penalty for having used his pugilistic powers in the wrong direction, and he can charge it to over-indulgence, as the statement of the case shows him to have been intoxicated at the time of the assault.

Short Lived Happiness.

Charles E. Bowman wants a divorce and has put his case into the hands of Klinger & Quail for the purpose of getting it before the court. They were married, according to the petition, May 9, 1902, at Poplar Bluffs, Missouri, but the following August, the defendant is said to have left home and is now following after cheap circuses and theaters. The husband says she is consorting with male companions of a questionable character and a direct act of adultery is charged as occurring in this city on the 26th of August, 1902 with Ira Burton.

A Nervous Affliction

The Victim After Failure with Other Medicines is Cured by

Paine's Celery
Compound

Paine's Celery Compound has acquired its famous reputation by its wonderful and decisive victories over disease and suffering. Paine's Celery Compound supplies strength and energy to those who are low from nervousness and physical exhaustion. It builds up the weakened nervous system, makes the blood pure and rich, establishes a perfect action of the heart, gives natural sleep and digestive vigor.

Lucy Regalade, 43 Abasco street, Monterey, Mexico, who was in a critical condition of health owing to nervous suffocation, was provisionally saved by Paine's Celery Compound after vain attempts to procure a cure with other medicines. She writes as follows:

"I feel very grateful for the good which Paine's Celery Compound has afforded me. Before using it I had been suffering for some time from nervous suffocation which prevented me from sleeping, speaking or eating. If I attempted to take a meal, I was obliged to stand in order to breathe. After the use of various remedies which brought no relief, my uncle, Mr. Dias, advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound, which I did, and found immediate relief. I took six bottles of it and now I am completely cured, thanks to the Compound."

BLOCKADE

Of the Pennsylvania Railroad
Has Been Broken.

The Pennsylvania officials were busy again from Saturday night until this morning in clearing the yards of freight, says a dispatch from Pittsburg and today for the first time in many weeks, traffic on the lines, east and west, was about normal. Baltimore and Ohio officials stated today that their line was entirely cleared and the road was now in shape to handle more freight than it could get.

President Cassatt and other high officials of the Pennsylvania railroad arrived in Pittsburg today unexpected, presumably to look into proposed extensive improvements in and about this city. When President Cassatt was here a week ago, the announcement was made that an appropriation of $2,000,000 had been made for that purpose, and it is now said the company will spend an additional $3,000,000 in this vicinity.

Scotland's Round Towers.

Scotland boasts of two round towers, said to be stragglers from the great typical group found in Ireland. The one is attached to the handsome cathedral of Brechin and the other stands in the center of Abernethy, near the entrance gate to the churchyard. The Brechin tower, built in six irregular courses and rising over 100 feet, is the more perfect of the two. It dates from Kenneth's reign, 971-95, and has a most graceful appearance. Prominent in its history speaks of having, in 1772, found handsome bells within its walls. These were afterward removed and now hang in a neighboring steeple. The origin of these towers is now somewhat doubtful, but archaeologists are generally agreed that they were built in connection with churches "for defense and faithfulness of watch" during the Norseman raids. They were afterward used as belltowers, the Brechin tower having done duty as such for generations. The tower is now one of the sights of the ancient town and is regarded as a memorial of its early connection with Ireland.—Scottish-American.

The Willis Law is Creating
Some Trouble

Among the Foreign Corporations Doing Business in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—(Special.) There is talk among the foreign corporations doing business in Ohio of testing the Willis taxation law in the United States Supreme Court. The claim is made that the law discriminates against foreign corporations.

T. F. Rockwell, secretary of the Toledo Oil & Gas Burner Co., states that his company has been asked to join in a suit to test the constitutionality of the law in the United States Supreme Court. This company was organized under the laws of West Virginia, and has a capital of $100,000. When the officers made their report to the secretary of state, under the Willis law, they enclosed a check for $3,050, making the claim that the greater part of its sales are made in other states. Secretary of State Laylin held against the contention, and required them to pay on their capitalization. He said the sales had nothing to do with the property, and they sent a check for $100.

MUST NOW DIVVY UP.

Columbus, O., Dec. 2.—The supreme court today gave judgment, ousting Alva A. Hall, clerk of Guernsey county from office and inducting his successor elected a year ago last month. The court holds that the act of legislative extending the terms of county clerks from August to January is void as far as it applies to the present incumbents. The decision means that all county clerks whose terms expired last August under the old law but who have held on since then under the extension act will have to pay over all the salary or fees drawn since August to the successor.

CAR

Hit by a Passenger Train.

Western Ohio

Has a Bad Wreck Near St. Marys.

Trolley Pole Jumped and Car Stopped on Railroad Crossing.

Passengers in Car Escaped by Jumping—Car Wrecked by the Collision—News of the Railroads.

Traction car No. 14, of the Western Ohio interurban line was struck and wrecked by west bound passenger train No. 5, of the L. E. & W., on the crossing of the two roads at the extreme east end of St. Marys about 6 o'clock last evening. The car was badly damaged and the pilot of the engine pulling the passenger train was wrecked but fortunately no one was injured.

The Western Ohio car was west bound and had a number of passengers for St. Marys, Minster and New Bremen on board. Conductor Ryan ran across the L. E. & W. track ahead of his car and saw the passenger train, No. 5, which left here at 4:25, approaching. The car had time to cross and he threw the derailing switch to let it cross but when the forward trucks got upon the steam railroad track the trolley jumped off the wire and the car came to a stop.

Conductor Ryan feared he could not get the trolley replaced in time to avoid an accident and he called to the passengers to jump and the precaution was well taken for a moment after the car had been vacated the engine, No. 96, pulled the L. E. & W. train crashed into it. Traffic on both lines was delayed about two hours on account of the blockade occasioned by the derailing of the traction line car.

BEAUTIFUL

Mahogany Steck Baby Grand Piano

One of the Finest Musical Instruments Ever Sold In Lima

To-day Became the Property of Mrs. Walter Scott, Who Made the Selection After a Careful Comparison of Standard Makes.

One of the most beautiful pianos ever seen in Lima was delivered from the stock room of B. S. Porter and Son this morning to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott. The instrument is a Steck "baby grand", in a fine mahogany case and was Mrs. Scott's selection after a careful comparison and trial of all the best pianos on the market.

The fact that Mrs. Scott is herself a very clever and talented musician and therefore authority on what is not only good but BEST in the musical world, speaks very highly for the Steck.

Mrs. Scott has many times delighted Lima audiences with her musical genius and in her selection of a piano for herself, it is but natural that she would select the very highest grade instrument the market affords; hence her selection of the Steck.

B. S. Porter and Son have always been known in Lima and vicinity as "leaders of everything in the musical line" and strangers need but a glance around their establishment on south Main street to be convinced that they are surely living up to that record.

If anybody has a desire for a piano in his or her home, the point of expediency should not be considered, for at Porter and Son's the terms are as reasonable as the most economical could ask for and when it comes to prices on pianos and other musical instruments, the "Old Reliable" was never known to trail.

It's nearly Christmas now, and there is nothing in the world that would be appreciated by man, woman or child so much as a piano such as can be found only at the business and warm rooms of B. S. Porter & Co., 141 south Main street.

BLAMES THE ARMY FOR HER TROUBLES.

Mrs. Lena Folk Writes from Altoona That She is Not With Edgcomb.

Relatives in this city of Mrs. Lena Folk, wife of Samuel Folk, of the Salvation Army, are anxious to have the public to understand that the charges recently filed against her in mayor's court by her husband, are not sustained by recent developments in the affair.

As will be remembered by readers of the Times-Democrat, Folk signed an affidavit in mayor's court charging his wife with unlawfully living with Harry Edgcomb, another member of the Salvation Army, who came here sometime ago in search of his wife whom he claimed was infatuated with a local member of the Army, named Reed. Mrs. Folk and her two children disappeared several days ago and the filing of the affidavit by the husband and father followed, but the police failed to locate Mrs. Folk and Edgcomb in the place they were alleged to have gone to, and since the investigation, Mrs. Folk has written a letter to her father, a well known and respectable citizen of this city. She is in Altoona, Pa., and declares that Edgcomb is not, and has not been with her since she left Lima. She states that she will not live with her husband in Lima, but is willing to live with him elsewhere. She blames the environments of the Salvation Army in this city for her domestic troubles, but the cause of her sudden departure and the action of her husband is not stated.

Appointment of Charles Watson As a Member of the Fire Department (Confirmed, Condition of Funds.

Vice-president Mokes occupied the chair at council meeting last night. President Overly and Mr. Yorkkamp were the only members absent. The latter came in later.

Minutes of last session were read and approved. The fire committee recommended the confirmation of the mayor's appointments of Chas. Watson as a regular fireman and George Tracewell as messenger in the fire department.

Mr. Shannahan was in favor of referring the appointments back for the reason that one of the men appointed was being shoved into the department ahead of men who had served for some time as substitutes.

Mr. Smith moved that the appointment of Mr. Watson be confirmed, and his motion carried. A ballot on the appointment of Mr. Tracewell, however, resulted in 7 yeas and 6 nays and the appointment was declared rejected.

THE IDLER.

One of the greatest actresses of her time—Mrs. Fiske played last winter in the date version of "East Lynne" in the "Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch." The modern playwright has found it hard to improve upon the old methods and manner. Love will ever be a most dramatic theme and when one play combines in it the love of home, husband and child, the story clearly compasses the emotion from birth to death.

One critic has said that this is the great motive of success in "East Lynne" which will be seen at Faurot opera house tomorrow evening with Miss Rebecca Warren as Lady Isabelle.

TRUE MEETING OF UNDERTAKERS.

And Lawful Wife
of Calkins

As the Records

Show at the Office of the Probate Judge.

The Husband May be a Deserter But His Deception Won't Stand

And the Young Wife in Toledo, Who Has Been Deserted Has a Certificate to Prove Her Marriage.

To the Honorable Judge of the Probate Court of Allen county:

The undersigned respectfully makes application for a marriage license for said parties, and upon oath states that said Frank J. Calkins is 31 years of age on the 29 day of October, 1901. His residence is Lima, O., his place of birth Grand Rapids, Mich., and his occupation a laborer. His father's name is John Calkins and his mother's maiden name was Mary Stillwell. He was once previously married but has no wife living.

That said Alverta Goodwin is 23 years of age on the 31 day of May, 1901; her residence is Lima, O.; her place of birth is Van Wert county, and her occupation is housekeeper. Her father's name is Charles Goodwin, her mother's maiden name is Harriet Goodwin and she has not been previously married. It is expected that F. E. Duffield, Justice of the Peace, is to solemn-ize the marriage of said parties.

The above is a verbatim copy of an application for a marriage license made by Frank J. Calkins, which is sworn to and signed in the presence of deputy clerk M. P. Hoagland on the 21st of October, and the records at the Probate Judge's office show that the contracting parties were married by Mr. Dufield on the day the license was issued.

It is merely a sequel to a letter received by Probate Judge Miller a few days ago by Mrs. Calkins, who asked for information which would prove whether or not she was a wife or the companion of a man who had practiced a deception. When the letter was received, the records were looked over, but the court at first glance failed to find such an entry.

A more patient search brought to light the fact that Mrs. Calkins was a lawful wife and notice to that effect was at once sent to the woman who feared that she had been betrayed.

The Toledo Times, acting upon a telegram from Lima, sent a reporter to the home of Mrs. Calkins and the interview is given as follows:

"It was just about one year ago that Mr. Calkins and I went to the office of the probate judge in Lima and were married, or at least I supposed we were. A man whom Frank told me was the judge said a few words and as we went away Frank said that we were married and that he would return in a day or two for the certificate.
Well, we lived together as man and wife in Lima until about four weeks ago when we came to Toledo and to this place where I have been stopping ever since. My husband introduced me to the landlady as his wife and for a time all was lovely. Some days also he failed to come home as usual at 12 o'clock at night and for over a week I saw nothing of him. Then last Thursday I wrote to Lima to see if he really was my husband, but as yet have heard nothing from there. Judging by the telegram you have just received,
it was evidently a mock marriage and I have been basely deceived, and never was legally married to him.

"The little woman who is thus wondering if she really has a husband or not is a modest, dark haired little creature who evidently knows no wrong
and is not very familiar with the ways of the world. Her health is not of the best. Since she has been in Toledo she has tried to work at the lunch factory, but her strength could not permanently. She avers that her husband has not paid her board where she is living and she is well high heartbroken over the discovery that she has been deceived. She says that her father's name is C. Goodwin, and that he lives at Van Wert, O. Today
Mrs. Calkins, or Miss Goodwin, as the case may be, is going to consult with Dr. W. C. Officer Ware with a view to determining what can be done to right the wrong which has evidently been done to her.

street says that Calkins first regre-

Fifty-two Applicants for State License Take Examination Here.

Applicants are Chiefly Students and Apprentices
---Men Who Have Been in the Profession
Five Years Need Not Take Examination.

A session that is of importance to both the quick and the dead was held in the parlors of the Lima House in this city today. The session was one held by more than half a hundred undertakers and it was held under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Ohio State Board of Embalming Examiners, a board that was authorized and created by an act of the state legislature, passed last April. The purpose of the law is to regulate the practice of embalming and the preparation and disposal of the dead so as to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases, and to provide for the better protection of life and health. The act requires that all practitioners in the embalming profession shall take an examination and if qualified, receive a license from the state board within one year after the passage of the law.

One of these examinations—the fifth held in the state since the law was passed—was held at the Lima house today and several of the local undertakers and some of their assistants were among the applicants for license. The law provides that persons who have been practitioners for a period of five years prior to the passage of the act, may receive a license upon application with an affidavit but most undertakers prefer to take the examination in order to be placed in class A upon passing.

There were, in all, fifty-two applicants for licenses at today's meeting, including embalmers, students and apprentices from various points in northwestern Ohio. There were two sets of questions prepared by the examining board, one set being given out at the morning meeting and the other at a session held this afternoon. The results of the examination will not be known until the last of the week.

The examining board is, as provided by the law, organized with five members, two of whom are members of the state board of health, and the other three are practicing embalmers.
The members of the board are Dr. J.
C. Crossland, of Zanesville, president of the state board of health; C. O.
Prolst, M. D., secretary of the state board of health; W. M. Bateman, of Zanesville; R. E. Jones, of Columbus, and J. H. Sharer, of Alliance. The latter two gentlemen are respectively, president and secretary-treasurer, of the examining board.

HUNTING STORY

Which Will Interest Lima's Nimrods.

The following story which is going
the rounds of the newspapers may inspire some Lima hunters to tell some of their remarkable shooting stories:

"John Smithers, of Livingston avenue, a well known hunter of Columbus, tells a remarkable story of his last expedition after quail. He was accompanied by James Huntley, who vouches for the tale. Both Smithers and Huntley used rifles. They are expert shots, and argue that if they used shot guns they would simply be murdering game.

"Smithers saw a quail rise some distance from him, and when it got on a level with his shoulders he let go with his rifle. Simultaneously with the report of his rifle he saw a flash some distance from him, and directly in line, but beyond the quail. It transpired that both Huntley and Smithers shot at the same bird.

"When the picked up the dead quail they were astonished to find that one bullet had struck the quail in the right eye, and that the other had entered the head through the left eye.
And not only did both bullets do their deadly work, but they had been fired so accurately, and from such positions that the bullets were imbedded in each other in such a way that it was impossible to pull them apart.
In fact, they are like one large bullet.
Smithers shows the bullet to prove his story."

the finest automobile that has yet been purchased in this city, having quite recently received one of the gasoline machines known as the new Buffalo Tonneau.

The Buffalo Tonneau is standard tread, has the long wheel base, four full elliptic springs, which renders it unusually flexible and comfortable, the better realized on rough roads. It has the stylish tonneau and wide room upholstered seats for four, of graceful curves and designs; and is beautifully finished in deep wine color, with gold and black trimmings. The large luggage box in front is a necessity much appreciated by tourists. Weight 1,800 pounds, tires 32x8, which affords more resiliency than heavy cars. It has the angle iron frame for strength, spark and throttle control, mud guards,

ago when we came to Toledo and to this place where I have been stopping ever since. My husband introduced me to the landlady as his wife and for a time all was happy. Some days ago he failed to come home as usual at 12 o'clock at night and for over a week I saw nothing of him. Then last Thursday I wrote to Lima to see if he
really was my husband, but as yet have heard nothing from there. Judging
by the telegram you have just received,
it was evidently a mock marriage
and I have been basely deceived, and never was really married to him.

"The little woman who is thus wondering if she really has a husband or not is a modest, dark haired little creature who evidently knows no wrong
and is not very familiar with the ways
of the world. Her health is not of the best. Since she has been in Toledo she has tried to work at the brush factory, but her strength would not permit. She avers that her husband has not paid her board where she is living and she is well nigh heartbroken over the discovery that she has evidently been betrayed. She says that her father's name is C. J. Goodwin, and that he lives at Van Wert O. Today Mrs. Calkins, or Miss Goodwin, as the case may be, is going to consult with H. W. Officer Ware with a view to determining what can be done to right
the wrong which has evidently been done to her.

"The landlady at 704 Lafayette street, says that Calkins first appeared at her place about a year ago.

MEETING OF UNDERTAKERS.

Fifty-two Applicants for State License Take Examination Here.

Applicants are Chiefly Students and Apprentices
---Men Who Have Been in the Profession
Five Years Need Not Take
Examination.

A session that is of importance to
in the parlors of the Lima House in this city today. The session was one held by more than half a hundred undertakers and it was held under the jurisdiction and supervision of the Ohio State Board of Embalming Examiners, a board that was authorized
and created by an act of the state legislature, passed last April. The purpose of the law is to regulate the
practice of embalming and the preparation and disposal of the dead so as
to prevent the spread of contagious
and infectious diseases and to provide for the better protection of life
and health. The act requires that all practitioners in the embalming profession shall take an examination and if qualified, receive a license from the state board within one year after
the passage of the law.

One of these examinations—the
fifth held in the state since the law
was passed—was held at the Lima House today and several of the local
undertakers and some of their assistants were among the applicants for
sons who have been practitioners for

a period of five years prior to the passage of the law, may receive a license upon application with an affidavit but most undertakers prefer to take the examination in order to be placed in class A upon passing.

There were, in all, fifty-two applicants for licenses at today's meeting,
including embalmers, students and apprentices from various points in northwestern Ohio. There were two sets of questions prepared by the examining board, one set being given out at the morning meeting and the other at
a session held this afternoon. The results of the examination will not be known until the last of the week.

The examining board is, as provided by the law, organized with five
members, two of whom are members
of the state board of health, and the other three are practicing embalmers.
The members of the board are Dr. J.
C. Crossland, of Zanesville, president of the state board of health; C. O.
Probst, M. D., secretary of the state board of health; W. M. Bateman, of Zanesville; R. E. Jones, of Columbus, and J. H. Sharer, of Alliance. The latter two gentlemen are respectively
president and secretary-treasurer, of the examining board.

ented to her that the woman with him was his wife, out later on she declares that he told her she was not his wife."

It is evident that Mrs. Calkins was not happily married as in less than a year the ardor of her husband has cooled and he has deserted her, leaving behind the impression that she is not his lawful wife. The records at the Probate Judge's office show very plainly that the deception, if such was intended, was manufactured and that Calkins is no doubt attempting to play a double game.

HUNTING STORY Which Will Interest Lima's Nimrods.

The following story which is going
the rounds of the newspapers may inspire some Lima hunters to tell
some of their remarkable shooting
stories:

"John Smithers, of Livingston avenue, a well known hunter of Columbus, tells a remarkable story of his last expedition after quail. He was accompanied by James Huntley, who vouches for the tale. Both Smithers and Huntley used rifles. They are expert shots, and argue that if they used shot guns they would simply be murdering game.

"Smithers saw a quail rise some distance from him, and when it got on
a level with his shoulders he let go
with his rifle. Simultaneously with the report of his rifle he saw a flash
some distance from him, and directly
in line, but beyond the quail. It transpired that both Huntly and Smithers shot at the same bird.

"When the picked up the dead quail
they were astonished to find that one bullet had struck the quail in the
tered the head through the left eye.
And not only did both bullets do
their deadly work, but they had been fired so accurately, and from such positions that the bullets were imbedded in each other in such a way that it was impossible to pull them apart.
In fact, they are like one large bullet.
Smithers shows the bullet to prove
his story."

HANDSOME

Automobile Received by Samuel Collins.

One of the Buffalo Tonneaus Comes to This City.

Four Seated Family Carriage That is the Most Complete and Elaborate Machine Yet
Sold in Lima.

The venerable Samuel Collins, has for years been recognized as one of Lima's leading pioneer citizens, and it is also quite evident that the justly holds the title of one of Lima's leading citizens. He is well advanced in years but is as wide awake to the onward march of modern progress as any one and is today the happy owner of the finest automobile that has yet been purchased in this city, having quite recently received one of the gasoline machines known as the new Buffalo Tonneau.

The Buffalo Tonneau is standard
tread, has the long wheel base, four
full elliptic springs, which renders it
unusually flexible and comfortable,
the better realized on rough roads. It has the stylish tonneau and wide room
upholstered seats for four, of graceful
curves and designs; and is beautifully
finished in deep wine color, with gold
and black trimmings. The large luggage box in front is a necessity much appreciated by tourists. Weight 1,000 pounds, tires 3x28, which affords more resiliency than heavy cars. It has the angle iron frame for strength, spark
and throttle control, mud guards, lamps, heavy tubular steel wheels, radiating coils, very quiet muffler, with cut out, and in fact every feature included on cars costing from $2,000 up.
